All subcontractors executing contracts with Noor International Academy or Key Construction must and will comply with the equal opportunity laws.

All bidders must provide Iran Economic Sanctions Act Certification and Familial Disclosure in compliance with MCL 380.1267 and attach this information to the bid proposal. The bid proposal will be accompanied by a sworn and notarized statement disclosing any familial relationship that exists between the owner or any employee of the bidder and any member of the Noor International Academy Board or the Noor International Academy Superintendent. The Board reserves the right to accept or disqualify a bid proposal that does not include this sworn and notarized disclosure statement. See attached forms.

The Board of Directors and the Construction Manager reserve the right to accept or reject any or all bids, either in whole or in part; to award contract to other than the low bidder; to waive any irregularities or informalities; and in general to make awards in any manner deemed to be in the best interests of the Board or Construction Manager.

All blank portions of the proposal forms must be filled in and all questions responded to. Each submitted proposal must include the legal name of the bidder(s) and will be signed by person(s) legally authorized to bind the bidder(s) to a contract. If bids are submitted by an agent, satisfactory evidence of agency authority is required.

Basis of Proposal:

Proposals shall be based on the methods and materials shown on the Drawings and described in the Specifications and Scope of Work Forms. If the Bidder wishes to bid on alternate material or piece of equipment other than that specified, he shall submit a separate Proposal on the alternate materials or equipment apart from the Base Bid. Substitutions not specifically allowed by the various Specification Sections will not be accepted after signing of the Agreement by both parties.

All parties must quote the plans and specifications as the base bid. Failure to comply with these requirements may be cause to disqualify Proposal.

Prices must include material, delivery, equipment, supervision, labor, assembly, insurance, and fees and set in place for a complete Scope of Work. This project is tax exempt.

Manufacturer's specifications and product numbers are intended to establish a minimum standard of design, construction, and quality that will be accepted.

Subcontractors shall coordinate with other trades that affect the installation of the Work, and with the Construction Manager.

Each bid shall include any hoisting, delivery, handling, and general cleanup of subcontractor's debris and storage requirements.

All contracts for construction will be direct contracts with the Construction Manager, Key Construction Group. Overall administration of the Project will be the responsibility of the Construction Manager. The Owner shall approve subcontract awards in August 2023 or upon financing and the authorizer's approval of the construction project

Whichever is later, to separate contractors for separate bid divisions or combinations of bid divisions. A Bidder may submit a proposal on more than one Bid Division; however, a separate bid must be submitted for each Bid Division of a combined bid. All bids shall be submitted on the bid forms attached hereto, completely filled in, and executed (copies of the bid forms are acceptable). Facsimile bids will not be accepted.

The Bidders shall read and review the Bidding Documents carefully and familiarize themselves thoroughly with all requirements.

Project Schedule:

The approximate completion schedule for bidding purposes is attached. All subcontractors must staff the project to maintain the scheduled completion date. Trades are anticipated to be scheduled on a phased basis in close coordination with other trades. Owner will not pay for any overtime to maintain the construction schedule. Unless delayed by force majeure events and noted in writing immediately and submitted to Owner, should the subcontractor fail to adhere to the schedule, the subcontractor shall furnish such labor and/or services, or work sufficient overtime as may be necessary to make progress conform to schedule. Failure to adhere to schedule, or failure to take steps to regain schedule shall constitute default within the terms of the contract. Any premium time costs shall not be reimbursable unless previously approved in writing by CM / Owner. Owner / CM reserves the right to interfere as necessary to supplement the project with additional labor forces to ensure the project schedule is maintained. The subcontractor will be advised in writing that a scheduling breach exists with adequate time to correct the schedule. If failure to correct the schedule remains a detriment to the Owner's project goals, Owner / CM reserves the right to secure additional labor as necessary to comply with the project requirements. The direct costs associated with additional labor forces of the Owner / CM and Supervision time involved will be solely born by the Subcontractor.

Commencement date:

It is the intent to award the contract(s) by end of August 2023 or upon site plan approval, financing and the authorizer's approval of the construction project whichever is later. After the proposals are opened, evaluated and approved, a letter of award confirming its acceptance will be sent to the selected contractor(s). The intended contract is attached hereto.

Questions During Bidding:

If any person contemplating submitting a bid on the proposed Contract is in doubt as to the true meaning of any part of the Drawings or Specifications, he may submit to the CM a written request for an interpretation thereof. Any such Addendum will be mailed or delivered to each person receiving a set of the Contract Documents and to such other prospective Bidders as have requested they be furnished with a copy of such Addendum. Any questions regarding the RFP's or contract documents must be sent to the Construction Manager.

Under no circumstance shall the bidder contact the Owner for clarification of the Bidding Documents.
